

Marshall Children Young Docent Program: Harvest & Holidays in the 19th Century

Journey through the 19th century and discover life at the Glebe House. By joining our Marshall Children Young Docent Program, you will not only explore history but also gain valuable skills.

2025 Fall Session Dates:
October 2 & 16, November 6 & 20, and December 4 & 18.

Program Highlights:

- Guided Tours: Learn the art of guiding visitors through the Glebe House and its grounds, sharing captivating stories and historical facts.
- Interactive Workshops: Engage in hands-on activities like candle making, quill writing, and open-hearth cooking, gaining insights into colonial life.
- Colonial Crafts: Discover traditional crafts and create your own colonial-era-inspired pieces.
- Museum Visits: Embark on enriching field trips to local museums, expanding your knowledge of the region's history.
- Garden Exploration: Explore the beauty and significance of the Gertrude Jekyll Garden, learning about its design and the plants that thrive within it.

The program is open to interested children ages 6 and up, with sessions available in the Fall & Spring. Meetings are held on select Thursday afternoons from 4:00-5:30 pm.

Please call the Museum Office for more information and to register at 203-263-2855.
